WHAT’S CRACKIN’

CALENDAR

Summertime is here, and there's a heat wave in my pants. The sun makes plants grow. It does the same thing to my dick. My penis grows like a proud cornstalk, reaching toward the sun. My balls hang low enough that I could stumble on them. Those balls drop like mangoes from the mango tree. My sperm are so big and healthy, you can see the little tadpoles with the naked eye. My loins belch forth semen like so much pollen. I run naked through the cornfields, eagerly distributing my cum as if it were free detergent samples. Summertime conjures the latent sensualist in me. It is my personal mating season. My time of the season for rutting. In the summertime... when the weather is fine... I would like to jauntily ram my penis inside every woman except the very old, the lame, and most of the infirm. And so I offer this paean, this hommage, to my summertime sexuality.

I was conceived in late summer and born in early summer. I grew up battered by the harsh east Coast seasons. I only recently returned after two decades out west. I lived in LA, where it's always a mild ashen summer, and then Portland, with...

BACKGROUND
With instant rap classics such as “Show Us Your Penis” and “Pussy Go Meow,” FINGER BANG CITY has become the biggest deal in Portland since gold teef. But enough about the music, let’s get to the sexy bitches...
MEET THE PIONEERS OF FINGER BANG CITY

MUTHA SUPERIOR’s got more notches on her belt than Robert Downey Jr. has DUs. Wearing sunglasses since the day Sister Francis found her abandoned in a car seat on the step of St. Mary’s School for Disenfranchised Girls, this little minx is hot to trot and sly like a fox. Spending a majority of her youth in the back seat of sedans left Mutha with the innate ability to identify automobile makes and models by a quick glance at a car’s ceiling. With one ex-husband in the bag, she’s on the prowl for the next Mr. Wrong. She’s nailed the entire cast of Queer Eye for the Straight Guy (except for the straight guy). This rhyming queen and dance machine maintains her figure with a diet of champagne, cigarettes, and corn dogs. But Mutha Superior’s more than just a pretty face and a hot piece of ass; her rapier wit delivers a precision-guided destruction of ego and self-delusion. Watch out for this little kitten, she’ll steal your TiVo and your heart.

Don’t let SLOPPY BISCUIT’s 4’11” frame throw you. Size only matters when you’re talking about man-crotch. Her love of gangsta rap music started early in life. Adopted by Bobby Brown’s second cousin—Robby Brown—she was bottle-fed Night Train until the age of 10, when she was given her first pair of stilettos and a padded training bra for Kwanzaa. By 13, she was writing raps for her Uncle Bobby whenever his manager couldn’t wake him up. A self-proclaimed “saltine cracka with a size B cup,” Sloppy B. now has more ba-dunk than Beyoncé and more passion than Puffy. Bi-city, you can find her rack bouncing back and forth from Seattle to Portland in hot pants, hot pink lipstick and her bra stuffed with C-notes. Legend has it that Sloppy is the original LA face with an Oakland booty. Unfortunately, when the fluorescent lights go off, the sunglasses stay on. With hair that defies gravity and a penchant for high kicks and jazz hands, she accepts fan mail in the form of Champagne, cartons of Virginia Slims, and Cheetos.

FINGER BANG CITY have got their iCals packed with an upcoming east coast tour, music videos, and an iTunes EP. But you can catch their hyper-sexed jams at Berbati’s Pan on Saturday, August 26th, for Exotic magazine’s 13th Anniversary Party. Their hustle and flow is sure to make you bust a nut.

Sometimes it’s a little bit difficult writing this column from three hours away. My boys (and girl) back at home plate do their best to communicate everything I’m missing out on in Portland, and I in turn do my best to pass that on to you. But every so often, I have the need, dare I say, desire to cross back into that oh-so-familiar land I left behind several years ago and see how long it will take me to get my silly ass back in trouble. (On average, it usually only takes about 24 hours.) You can leave your heart in San Francisco, but if home is where the hard-on is, Portland, you’ve got it going on—ESPECIALLY this month! If there’s one event I simply cannot resist coming back home for each year, it is without a doubt EXOTIC MAGAZINE’S ANNIVERSARY PARTY. You are cordially invited to come celebrate 13 years of PDX’s #1 Adult Entertainment Survival Guide on Saturday, August 26th at Berhadi’s (conveniently located right across the street from Dante’s). Debauchery on the menu this year includes live music from Velabonz and sexy gangster smut rap from Fingerbang City (as featured in this month’s issue). In addition, I’ll be heading into town with some lovely chaperones from The SaintsSinner Burlesque Review, who will be taking it off for you Seattle-style and then some. More naughtiness is currently in progress that we can’t reveal right now, but you won’t want to miss this one. Advance tickets are on sale, or you can risk it at the door. See ya there!

Next up, before I get crackin’ into the news of all things nude, I believe an apology might be in order. Last month I attempted to compile an editorial of 13 years at Exotic magazine. I attempted to cover the highs, the lows, and the moments that shaped Exotic into what it has become today. But I received a late-night irate text message from our former publisher telling me that my writing still sucks 80% of the time. This hurt me deeply. I have gone through great pains to try and make sure my writing sucks 100% of the time, but it appears I’m letting all of you down. I will do my best to correct this in upcoming months. Or maybe I can just put a picture of my cat in here for you, call it ‘pussy,’ and take a month off to take some writing classes. Wouldn’t that be nifty?

IN DA CLUBZ

Congratulations to The Viewpoint on their immensely successful Top Female Entertainer of the Year Contest. Athena (Miss Nude Oregon 2005) snagged herself top honors as well as $5K and a trip to Vegas. Second place went to Sequoia, and third runner-up was Jackie. The event drew a packed house, and the contestants delivered outstanding performances. Make sure not to miss this one next year.

Lush and Bliss have double the excitement all month long, with two parties featuring door-to-door action in both clubs starting with the Crave Magazine Anniversary Party on Thursday, August 17th, followed by a MySpace Friends VIP Party on Sunday, August 20th @ 9pm with a free dinner.

Over at Dolphin I they’ll be pampering the ladies every Wednesday. (Ummmm, isn’t that what we normally do, anyway? It’s always about the ladies! But I’m sure it will be very special just the same.) And out at Dolphin II, you can now party in the sun on their new patio with a cold beverage and enjoy their sexy entertainers getting wet and frolicking in the pool.

Stars Salem revs up with the outdoor event of the year, “Bikes, Bands, Babes and Brawls,” on Saturday, August 19th @ 1pm. The event will feature custom ride vendors, Crazy Train (Ozzy tribute band), Motorbreath (Metallica tribute band), an official 4B ring-card girl contest, and 10 full-contact MMA-style amateur brawls. Tix range from $20-$40—sounds like a hell of a deal for that much entertainment.

Watch the pretty ladies of The Boom Boom Room get moist at their Wet T-shirt Contest on Thursday, August 24th, @ 9pm…contest is open to all ladies, and stay tuned for the all-new Amateur Night coming in September.

Soobic’s is back in business with two girls on each stage every Thursday, August 24th. The club is hosting a Dancer Contest Thursday, August 24th. Registration begins at 2PM.

Wildcats brings back an old favorite, “The Great Popsicle Suck Off,” on Saturday, August 19th @ 11PM. (Ah…the memories. I remember their first one, when I tried desperately to capture a dripping popsicle oozing across one of the naughty kitties’ breasts during a photo shoot.) OK, cold shower time, where was I…right, The Dream on Saloon is hosting a Dancer Contest Thursday, August 24th, where you can also check out their brand-new outdoor patio.

PLACES TO GO IF YOU HATE EXOTIC.

So suppose you wanna go to the Exotic Anniversary Party but you think we’re a bunch of fuckbags. Maybe you think we kicked your girlfriend, or maybe we cheated on you, or maybe we put the wrong picture in an ad that made you look fat, or we never called you back…FEAR NOT, EXOTIC HATERS! It appears that through some insane coincidence, there is an awful lot of stuff going on elsewhere on the night of our 13th Anniversary Party. It starts with Atlantis Showgirls. (And I thought you loved me, Claude—I guess the honeymoon is over.) Aside from being the home of this month’s August Cover Girl Aris, Atlantis will be hosting their H2o Party on Saturday, August 26th. Seems like Lush and Bliss are in on this conspiracy as well, as they bring you “Oasis—the Ultimate H2o Event” on Saturday, August 26th. (Ummmm, double H2os? Why not get together, guys, and have an H4o?) And last and certainly not least, Wildcats offers you a reprieve from those bastards at Exotic with a Hawaiian Beach Party Saturday, August 26th from 7pm-close.

ELSEWHERE...

Construction is complete at Pink Kitty’s West. Butterfly’s lease has been extended, and so has their sale offering 50–80% off clothing with new designs and custom outfits. And you can get a free DVD with any purchase of $24 or more at any outlet of The Adult Shop located throughout Oregon.

That’s it for this month, Portland; see you on the 26th.

Roman Emperor Tiberius liked his prostitutes so young that he was known to force unweaned babies to perform fellatio on him. In 84 A.D., such excesses led Emperor Domitian to outlaw prostitution for any child under seven. Ancient Tibetans believed that tobacco grew only if sprinkled with the blood of menstruating prostitutes.

Circa 100 A.D., Teutonic tribes punished Women of Ill Repute by smothering them in feces. The lawyer for an ancient Greek hetaira (high-class courtesan) named Phryne, sensing he was losing his client’s trial for “impiety” charges, abruptly tore off Phryne’s clothes, revealing her legendary breasts to an awestruck courtroom. The judges acquitted her.

Both groups will bark statistics at you about how the screaming bulk of prostitutes were forcibly diddled as children and shoved into the sex biz while barely in their teens. Some will claim that most prostitutes get raped at least once during their career...others allege they’ll get raped multiple times a week on average...and some will claim that the very act of being prostituted is rooted in misogyny, rape fantasy, and smelly, beer-bellied male domination.

Prostitution’s opponents will enthusiastically trot out exhaustive and graphic tales of brutality for anyone willing to listen. They’ll tell the stories about prostitutes being punished in olden days by having their noses cut off, cauterized with red-hot irons, dunked underwater while trapped in cages, and paraded through town on an animal cart while citizens jeered and threw doody at them. They’ll talk of a global sex-slave market which pitilessly shleps around nearly one million starved, battered, bruised, and shrieking victims yearly, most of whom are ultimately burned with cigarettes while being forced to fellate a row of unwashed, HIV-positive guerrilla soldiers. They’ll talk about herpes sores and pelvic dislocations and kicks to the face and forced hormone injections and multiple suicide attempts.

They’ll dredge up Jack the Ripper’s disemboweled strumpets and the dozens of soggy victims left strewn by the Green River Killer, who claimed he murdered whores because nobody cared enough about them to wonder who killed them. They’ll talk about women stuffed into trunks and child prostitutes who drink detergent to kill gonorrhea and boy eunuchs in India who have priests create surgical vaginas for them in order to pimp them out for high-risk sex.

They’ll tell you—and they wouldn’t be lying—that there are as many hookers in the Philippines as there are factory workers, and that Thailand has more whorehouses than schools. And they can’t help but remind you that the Nazis were known to patronize sex workers of both genders.
French whores in the 1700s could escape legal punishment by joining the opera.

In 1991, three men in Tennessee were arrested after soliciting a female police officer who was wearing a hat with the word POLICE on it.

Taiwanese police claimed in 2001 that they were attempting to aid an 82-year-old prostitute nicknamed “Grandma” in her journey to find a way out of the business.

Italian police arrested a 24-year-old prostitute in 2001 and charged her with “unfair competition” because her prices were too low.

In 2002, an Israeli man requested an escort for his hotel room and suffered a heart attack when his daughter arrived.

During 2005, a Richmond, VA, transsexual hooker named Monica Renee Champion had simultaneous arrest warrants as a male (south side of town) and a female (north side).

In March, 2006, after failing to receive payment from a john, a British prostitute bit his penis so hard that he required surgery.

PROSTITUTION’S DEFENDERS—basically a bunch of fat chicks in San Francisco—may concede that all such abuses exist, but they’d pin it on entirely different reasons than the ho-haters. To the whore apologists, prostitution truly is something sanctified, if not outright saintimious—it’s just that a patriarchal pig society and its horrid suppression of Mystical Female Sex Juices has defamed and debauched and stigmatized this once-holy ritual. They argue that hooking should be legalized and that “sex workers” should receive governmental protection, support, and possibly even medals. They form honest-to-God organizations such as The International Committee for Prostitutes’ Rights and the Sex Workers Outreach Project. They hold events such as the Sex Worker Festival and the World Whores Conference. There’s even a “Whore College” which holds seminars in “Boundary Roleplaying” and “Advanced Courses in Sexuality and Erotic Touch.” These brassy wimmin teach workshops and build support groups and foster networking and offer alternative health resources. They strive for empowerment, dignity, respect, autonomy, and universal human rights, especially for sex workers. In short, they’re possibly even more full of shit than their opponents. They’re prostitarded.

NATURALLY, I DISAGREE WITH BOTH SIDES.

I laugh at the sphincter-gripped censor-moralists because I don’t view the flesh trade as a Bottomless Pit of Human Evil, nor is it worse than any other prohibited vice. I definitely don’t see it as morally preferable to marriage, at least where the male is concerned. In marriage or any relationship, what incalculable fees does a man pay in terms of annoyance and grief? At times, marriage seems to differ from prostitution only in that it is far more complicated and miserable. But you wind up paying either way. This, sadly, is what it means to be a man.

I’ll concede to the sex-positive sex workers, as well as all their proud sisters lurking in the mystical menstrual night, that hooking would probably be safer for all involved if it were legalized. But the idea of gash-for-cash ever being uplifting or noble or—gasp—sacred? Never in a million years. It has nothing to do with misogyny or the idea that whoring degrades the whore.

Nope. It degrades the john. It degrades the overworked husband. It even degrades the male chimp who trades chimp food for chimp pussy. Underlying the whole stinking biz, there’s an implication that when a male and female have sex, this somehow doesn’t constitute an equal exchange of services. At the end of his orgasm, the man still owes. The female is expected to give sex; the man is expected to give sex plus something of value, because his sex is deemed worthless. The idea of men as lousy, inept, unsatisfying lovers is what underlines prostitution and taints the entire equation. It’s unfair to men, and it hurts our feelings.

The same unjust principle applies from the temples out to the jungles. Females are expected to provide sex, and that’s it. Males are expected to provide sex PLUS DURABLE GOODS. That’s a fundamental inequality between the sexes. If you don’t see that point, well, you must be a sexist. You don’t find female chimp’s and penguins offering their boyfriends food or building materials or protection—nah, the girl-beauties just give up the gash and call it even.

What are you saying, Miss Ho? My sex isn’t as good as your sex? Sex with me is worth less than sex with you? My pink ding-a-ling pales in comparison to your purple snapper? Fuck you—I’d rather jack off than give you a penny. Prostitution is a dirty business insulting to all males, from the dirty billionaire who buys a trophy wife all the way down to the dirty penguins and the dirty little chimps.

Rise up, boy monkeys, and revolt!
First Up...“Just Us Entertainment”
These catz have just released some summer fire for the streetz. Not only do these bruthas have some tight-ass tracks, but their lyrics will have you crackin’ up! They are some of the wittiest writers that I have heard in a while. They also did 90% of the production on the project. Their new CD is entitled Made n Oregon and contains 20 pieces of heat! The members of the “Just Us” trio are Pete Rose the CEO, Yaccimiss AKA 5th of Hen, and J.Dubb AKA Young Wallace. My hot picks are track #6, “Shake That!” for the strip clubs, and track # 10, “What it Do?” They got something for everybody on this new joint. The streetz, the clubs, females, and hustlers will all enjoy Made n Oregon. Make sure to grab a copy and check ‘em out at a club or concert hall near you. Much love y’all and keep on smashin’!!!

Next Up...Has a local Strip Club Jumped Into More Hot Water?
According to insiders, the club may be facing another serious lawsuit. Sources say that senior members of the club were responsible for spreading scandalous lies and tarnishing the reputation of a highly reputable and successful businessman. Sources also say that this potential lawsuit could be for defamation of character because of frivolous accusations and the slandering of one of club’s top-paying customers. Apparently the management tried to patch things up by inviting the gentleman back the next day. According to witnesses, this individual told them directly that he would never step into that establishment again. A few weeks later, a cease-and-desist letter was sent to the strip club by his lawyer. Not only are club workers prevented from contacting this ex-patron, but they have been informed that they will be liable for damages if they don’t shut up! This just goes to show that you never know who a customer might be, and everyone should be treated with the utmost respect! I will be sure to keep you posted on any new developments pertaining to this potential lawsuit.

Where are my Lil’ Kim Fans? “Put Ya Lighters Up!”
On July 3rd, 2006, Lil’ Kim was released from prison after being incarcerated a little over ten months. This was just in time for her to celebrate her own freedom on Independence Day. She was given a $50,000 fine and a year in jail for lying to a grand jury in 2001. I had read that she supposedly lied to protect some of her friends from going to jail. These friends were allegedly involved in a shootout in front of a radio station. Lil’ Kim was a “G” about it and served her time. On top of that, she didn’t snitch! That’s some real-ass shit. That chick is a true soldier. Sources say that her early release was due to her good behavior. Her mother Ruby had made the announcement back stage at the B.E.T. Awards that Lil’ Kim was about to get out soon. Speaking of the B.E.T. Awards, did y’all see Beyoncé??? Dayummm!!! Anyway I’m glad Lil’ Kim’s out, and I look forward to her being back on the music scene!!!

Honey of the Month
This month’s Honey is from Hawaii and can be seen at Centerfold Suites. She is currently pursuing a career in the medical field. Her measurements are 35-26-35, and she is Hawaiian & Swedish. Now that’s a fly combination! Jocelyn wanted me to give a message to all haters: “F??k Y’all!” No hate from me, baby, just congratulations for being the August 2006 Honey of the Month.

Big ups to my sponsors!!!

FEATURING LELU

Image by: Linda J. Lenski © LIconess.com
It happens all too often: I’m given a CD from a local band that I’ve ‘heard of’ but never actually heard, and as soon as I’m halfway through it I’m immediately pissed off that there are so many knobs out there that have made it while good music is left unappreciated by so many other rock ‘n’ rollers.

While musically inept sissies such as Nick Lachey are out there selling their asses for nothing more than the sake of vanity, the Space Cretins are doing what they do best—rocking, rolling, and laying down sexy beats for the ladies to shake their booties.

Formed in 2004 by the group’s vocalist, Paul Ace Diamond Blow, this group has already made a name for themselves in the local scene. They’ve become a favorite among the glam/punk/LA buttrockers and have an avid reputation for being the last at a party to pass out. With Danger Dayne on drums, Otis P. Otis on guitar, and Markass Starkiss Karkass on bass, these four musicians pull together to create the sound that is the Space Cretins. Their first CD, Rocket Roll, keeps the intensity that defines all that is rock ‘n’ roll while possessing the ability to make you want to reach for the nearest bottle and slam whatever inebriating substance it might hold. This belligerence-inducing piece of plastic is best played loud...or while fucking loudly.

This band left me rocked, shocked, and a little bit confused about their name and what they’re all about, so I requested a sit-down with this band to pick their brains. Instead, we got drunk while I attempted to comprehend the carnal spewing of the Space Cretins.

EU: So, guys, I’ve got to know—where did you guys come up with the name? Why “The Space Cretins?”
SC: (Paul) Spacehog was already taken, and we’re still hoping for a chance encounter with William Shatner in a Hong Kong karaoke bar where he would tell us that it was our destiny to start a ‘super-cyber’ band to put the FUN back in rock ‘n’ roll.
EU: Have any of you guys ever been abducted by aliens?
SC: (Paul) It doesn’t matter because the CIA still denies that we actually exist.

(Otis) Yeah, they held me captive and put salsa in my buttocks.
EU: What is it that disgusts you with the current music scene?
SC: (Paul) Everyone is so quick to put a generalized label on everything, and it makes for this all-or-nothing sheepish band of followers. Look, music either rocks or it doesn’t. Why do you have to act, look, or be a certain way to be considered part of a genre or crowd? People should be able to enjoy a multitude of different types of music without feeling like a social outcast because they don’t fit the stereotypical mold. Whatever happened to an open mind?
EU: So who do you guys like nowadays?
SC: (Paul) The Ramones, Go Like Hell, The Ones, William Shatner, NY glam.
EU: Why music? Why not something else? (Career, family, etc.)
SC: (Otis) I fell asleep in ‘79 (cause I was loaded), I woke up. I got responsible. And now I’m doin’ it all over again (takes shot). (Paul) When I was a kid, all I wanted to be was a rock star. I know I wouldn’t be happy doing anything else. Well, that, and I love to hear the sound of my own voice. I also put a mirror on the end of my microphone to watch myself play. It’s the sound of love. (Laughter, followed by excessive drinking.) But seriously, what are we going to do? Quit? Not a chance. Music matters. We like to rock and go on benders. What do you like to do?
EU: Do you believe that’s it’s not butter?
SC: (Otis) It ain’t butter, it’s margarine. Just because it spreads easier, it ain’t butter.
EU: What’s the best thing about being a rock star, or at least pretending to? What are some of the greatest perks?
SC: (Otis) Free drink tickets. (Dayne) Girls, free drinks, free drugs. (Takes shot.) (Paul) I’m sorry, what was the question? We’re not trying to stimulate brain cells or impress with fancy-fied riffage, we’re just trying to put the swagger back into leather rock ‘n’ roll pants.

See for yourself what you’re missing as The Space Cretins invade The Funhouse on Thursday, August 24th for the Underground Music Showcase with 1,2,3,4 and The Ones...and yes, I’ll be there. That asshole publisher is forcing me to enter the covergirl Jell-O wrestling contest. The things I do for this magazine are truly beyond me. For more on the Space Cretins, visit their website at www.spacecretins.com or on my space at http://www.myspace.com/spacecretins.
